

FRANCO QUILICO

Franco Quillico received an MS Summa Cum Laude in electrical engineering from the Polytechnic of Milan, in 1979. In 1984 he graduated with a Master in Business Administration (M.B.A.) in Finance from the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, where he was awarded the Beta Gamma Sigma Scholarship Award for achieving the highest academic performance in the M.B.A. class.

His professional career started in strategy consulting, with Bain & Company, and in investment banking, with Salomon Brothers.

From December 1993 to December 2020 Franco Quillico was Managing Partner and Founder of Andromeda Consulting, an advisory firm focused on business strategy, with a particular emphasis on mergers & acquisitions. During this period Andromeda Consulting has advised clients in transactions worth over $ 5 billion.

Franco Quillico has delivered Workshops for many Companies and institutions in several countries: Italy, France, United Kingdom, Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg, Finland, Spain, Greece, Switzerland, Principality of Monaco, United States, Russia, Ukraine, Croatia, Poland, Czech Republic, Romania, Algeria, Jordan, Kenya, Tanzania, Israel, Malaysia, United Arab Emirates, Kuwait, Iran, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, Mongolia, Taiwan and Australia.

Franco Quillico is Adjunct Professor of Finance and Strategy at MIP, the School of Management of the Politecnico di Milano; Adjunct Professor of Finance at the International University of Monaco (where in June 2019 he received a Special Award for 30 years of consecutive teaching and in June 2006 he received the "IUM Outreach Award" for excellence in teaching which was presented to him by Prince Albert II of Monaco).

Franco Quillico lives in Milan and is fluent in Italian, English and French.